DETAILED ACTION

Time Period Restarted

1. As explained in the Interview Summary attached herewith, this Action corrects the typographical errors contained in the previous Office Action and supercedes that Office Action.

The Period for Response is hereby restarted on the date of mailing for this Office Action.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description:

- Page 4 of the Specification refers to a first carousel (2), but this is not labeled as such in the Drawings;
- Page 4 of the Specification refers to a first hopper (30), but this is not labeled as such in the Drawings;
- Page 5 of the Specification refers to a central channel (18)), but this is not labeled as such in the Drawings;
- On page 4 of the Specification, the label (3) refers both to a slide unit (line 11) and a pick up means (line 33).

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1, 2, and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by JOHNSTON ET AL (US 6357490).

JOHNSTON ET AL discloses a capsule filling machine with a plurality of reciprocating doser means (78) mounted at regular intervals on a rotating carousel (62) (See JOHNSTON ET AL Fig. 6). The doser means are operative between a first position in which the doser picks up particulate matter and second position in which the doser transfers the particulate matter into capsules. The doser means are biased by means of springs (76). The capsules are then sealed and ejected into a hopper (110).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over in view of JOHNSTON ET AL (US 6357490).

JOHNSTON ET AL discloses a capsule filling machine, as described above.

JOHNSTON ET AL does not disclose the intervals between doser means to be 120 degrees.

However, JOHNSTON ET AL discloses the dosing means being placed at 72 degree intervals and it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the intervals 120 degrees, or any desired interval, in order to produce the most efficient rotating mechanism, since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art.

- JOHNSTON ET AL (US 6959522) and JOHNSTON ET AL (US6715259) disclose a capsule filling machine with a plurality of reciprocating doser means mounted at regular intervals on a rotating carousel
